Speaking from the Heart

“Vacation: Part 3!”

Well, it finally happened! After several years we actually did go on vacation. Thank you for your prayers for us. We are more rested and ready to go, and go we will! Camp begins this Monday. Last minute planning is under way and we are packing all the supplies to put on this year's camps. This is going to be an exciting year! Our theme for this summer will be “UNASHAMED” referring to Romans 1:16: “I am not ashamed of the gospel of Jesus Christ...”. Camp Life (our first camp) is for grades six through twelve and will be held on Monday, June 5th through Friday, June 9th. Both the beginning time and ending time is 10:00 AM. The staff will meet for an Orientation Meeting on Sunday evening, June 4th. We will go to supper (Dutch Treat) in Chillicothe together and then return to Grand Oaks Camp by 7:00 PM to begin the orientation. We need you to volunteer to help with our camp. Please let us know if and where you can volunteer

Speaking of June 4th, the Heartland/Linn-Livingston Disaster Relief Team will be meeting at Grand Oaks earlier in the day. Our DR Team has been out a couple of times since the last newsletter. The first week they were in West Plains with Flood Recovery. The second time, they went to Neosho. I was not able to go with them, since I served as Site Coordinator at Van Buren, Missouri. Now we concentrate on camp. Since we are going to be at Grand Oaks on that Sunday evening, we are going to hold the next H/LLBA DR team Gathering at 3:00 PM. What a busy time!

Next week (June 4-11, 2017) is our annual observance of Associational Emphasis Week. We celebrate our continuing partnership together as member churches of the Heartland Baptist Association. One of the ways we celebrate that is through the Joe E. Porter Associational Emphasis Offering. This offering benefits our Special Missions Fund (Block Party Trailers, Disaster Relief and our Summer Missionaries). Thank you for your continued support.

We love you all!
